Affinity (or the specific tour group like the Good Sam Club) is committed to providing reasonable accommodations for our disabled RV tour participants when it is in our control to do so. To assist us in providing this service, we request that you provide us with information concerning any accommodations you will need on the tour at the time of booking. Please keep in mind that we make arrangements with a number of third parties when scheduling events and will need advance notice as soon as possible in order to accommodate special needs. Please remember that at many tour destinations, the accommodations are temporary in nature and may not have all conveniences. Many events may include considerable walking and may not be comfortable for all participants. Facilities, such as seating for the disabled at special events, may not always be positioned with the rest of the group depending on access. We invite you to ask questions regarding specific tours in order to determine if the tours will meet your needs. Please note that while we will do our best to accommodate you in the event that parking, scheduling or other logistical problems result from adverse weather conditions or other events beyond our reasonable control, we are not responsible for any costs you may incur as a result of any such weather problems or other events that are beyond our reasonable control.

Veteran's Week in Branson, Missouri.

America's largest Veteran's Day celebration, "Veteran's Homecoming," takes place in Branson, Missouri every November. This week-long event is filled with celebrations, special shows, parades, and exhibits in which Branson entertainers and community members pay tribute to America's heroes.

We'll kick off the week with an exclusive performance by "The Veteran's Sweetheart," Barbara Fairchild, following our welcome dinner. During the week take time to visit the exhibits and displays throughout Branson, including the famous Patch Wall, as well as some of the best performances Branson has to offer.

The 75th Annual Veteran's Day Parade will be held on November 11, 2009. The Good Sam Club has a unique opportunity to participate in the parade aboard authentic WWII amphibious vehicles, know as "Ducks."
